GIFT OF SEYMOUR B. DURST OLD YORK LIBRARY

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

Comptroller's Office,

3d February, 1817.

SIR,

Pursuant to the provisions contained in the act of Congress, passed the 3d day of March, 1809, entitled, "An act further to amend the several acts for the establishment and regulation of the Treasury, War, and Navy Departments," I have the honour to transmit to you, to be laid before Congress, a statement of the balances remaining on the books of the Treasury, which balances appear to have been due more than three years, prior to the 30th September last, and remaining unsettled on that day.

No report having been made to this office by the accountants of the War and Navy Departments, of the balances on the books of their offices, agreeably to the provisions of the aforesaid act, no statement of such balances can, at this time, be made to Congress. It is understood that the pressure of public business has been such in those offices, as to prevent the accountants from making statements of the debts due from individuals to the United States conformably to my request; but so soon as they are received they shall be laid before Congress.

I have the honour to be,

With very great respect,

Your most obedient servant,

JOSEPH ANDERSON.

The honourable Henry Clay.
